I'm looking for a challenging, demanding and young at heart company to settle down, to contribute to making great things, to share expertise, knowledge and advice, to have fun and –why not?– to earn enough money to make a living

Hi, I'm Curro and I make UX

Hiring me you'll get a first-class, dynamic and determined UI/UX designer + writer & product designer. But also a multi-talented adaptable professional, formerly over 10-years experienced art & creative director at an advertising agency, copywriter and storyteller, advertising & brand strategist. And always a passionate, perfectionist, curious, ambitious and generous coworker.
